Helps generate quick point-of-purchase sales.

The MANHATTAN® Laser Mouse Pad Counter Display is pre-packed with a 24-piece assortment of MANHATTAN Laser Mouse Pads. Sturdy and attractive, it helps quickly generate point-of-purchase revenue in almost any computer shop or electronics retailer. Each MANHATTAN Laser Mouse Pad is imprinted with a vibrant, full-color image of tropical beaches and fish, endangered species, abstracts, flowers, parrots or landscape perfectly suited to brighten and decorate any desktop.

MANHATTAN Laser Mouse Pads feature a specially-textured surface with an anti-reflective finish that helps optimize laser beam detection for definitive mouse pointer location and minimal cursor fade or jitter. Ideal for everyday use in the home or office, it helps graphic designers, digital art and photography enthusiasts, CAD/CAM operators and other users get the most from high-resolution laser mice. The durable, natural rubber layer provides a non-slip grip that protects desktops from scratches and excessive wear. A low-friction surface provides smooth movement for comfortable, long use with less effort.
